FOR SERVICES OF THE CROWN

To: W3C
From: School Curriculum and Standards Authority, Government of Western Australia

The School Curriculum and Standards Authority is a state government authority with functions relating to the development and accreditation of courses and the standards, assessment and certification of student achievement.

In carrying out these functions, the School Curriculum and Standards Authority also produces resources to support course teaching and assessment programs, and conducts the ATAR course public examinations.

The School Curriculum and Standards Authority uses copyright material under s183 of the Copyright Act 1968 (Cth), and in some circumstances is required to notify and agree terms with copyright owners regarding the use of their work. Please see attached a notice of the use of your work on the School Curriculum and Standards Authority website in relation to the Applied Information Technology course. Your work will be acknowledged, and will be made available on our website at http://www.scsa.wa.edu.au/internet/Senior_Secondary/Courses/WACE_Courses/App_lied_Info_Tech. Selected Authority stakeholders may also be given restricted and temporary access to your work via cloud services. Please insert below any comments you wish to make, and the terms (if any) to which you desire the School Curriculum and Standards Authority to agree, in relation to this use of your work.

To: W3C

From: The State of Western Australia acting through its School Curriculum and Standards Authority, a body corporate established by s5 of the School Curriculum and Standards Authority Act 1997 (Western Australia)

Under s183(4) of the Copyright Act 1968 (Cth) the Government of the State of Western Australia hereby notifies you, the owner of copyright in the work specified below, that the Government of Western Australia intends to communicate this work to the public [Copyright Act 1968, s31(1)(a)(iv)] by making it available on the School Curriculum and Standards Authority website.

The purpose of this notice is to inform you in pursuance of s183(4) of the Copyright Act 1968 of the communication to the public by the School Curriculum and Standards Authority of your work. [Copyright Regulations 1969, Regulation 25(5)(f)].

DESCRIPTION OF WORK

Adapted from: Henry, S. L., Abou-Zahra, S., & White, K. (Eds). (2016). Accessibility, usability, and inclusion: Related aspects of a web for all. Retrieved July, 2018, from <https://www.w3.org/WAI/intro/usable>

Accessibility addresses discriminatory aspects related to equivalent user experience for people with disabilities, including people with age-related impairments. For the web, accessibility means that people with disabilities can perceive, understand, navigate, and interact with websites and tools, and that they can contribute equally without barriers.
